Voyages & Vistas

Lady Liberty

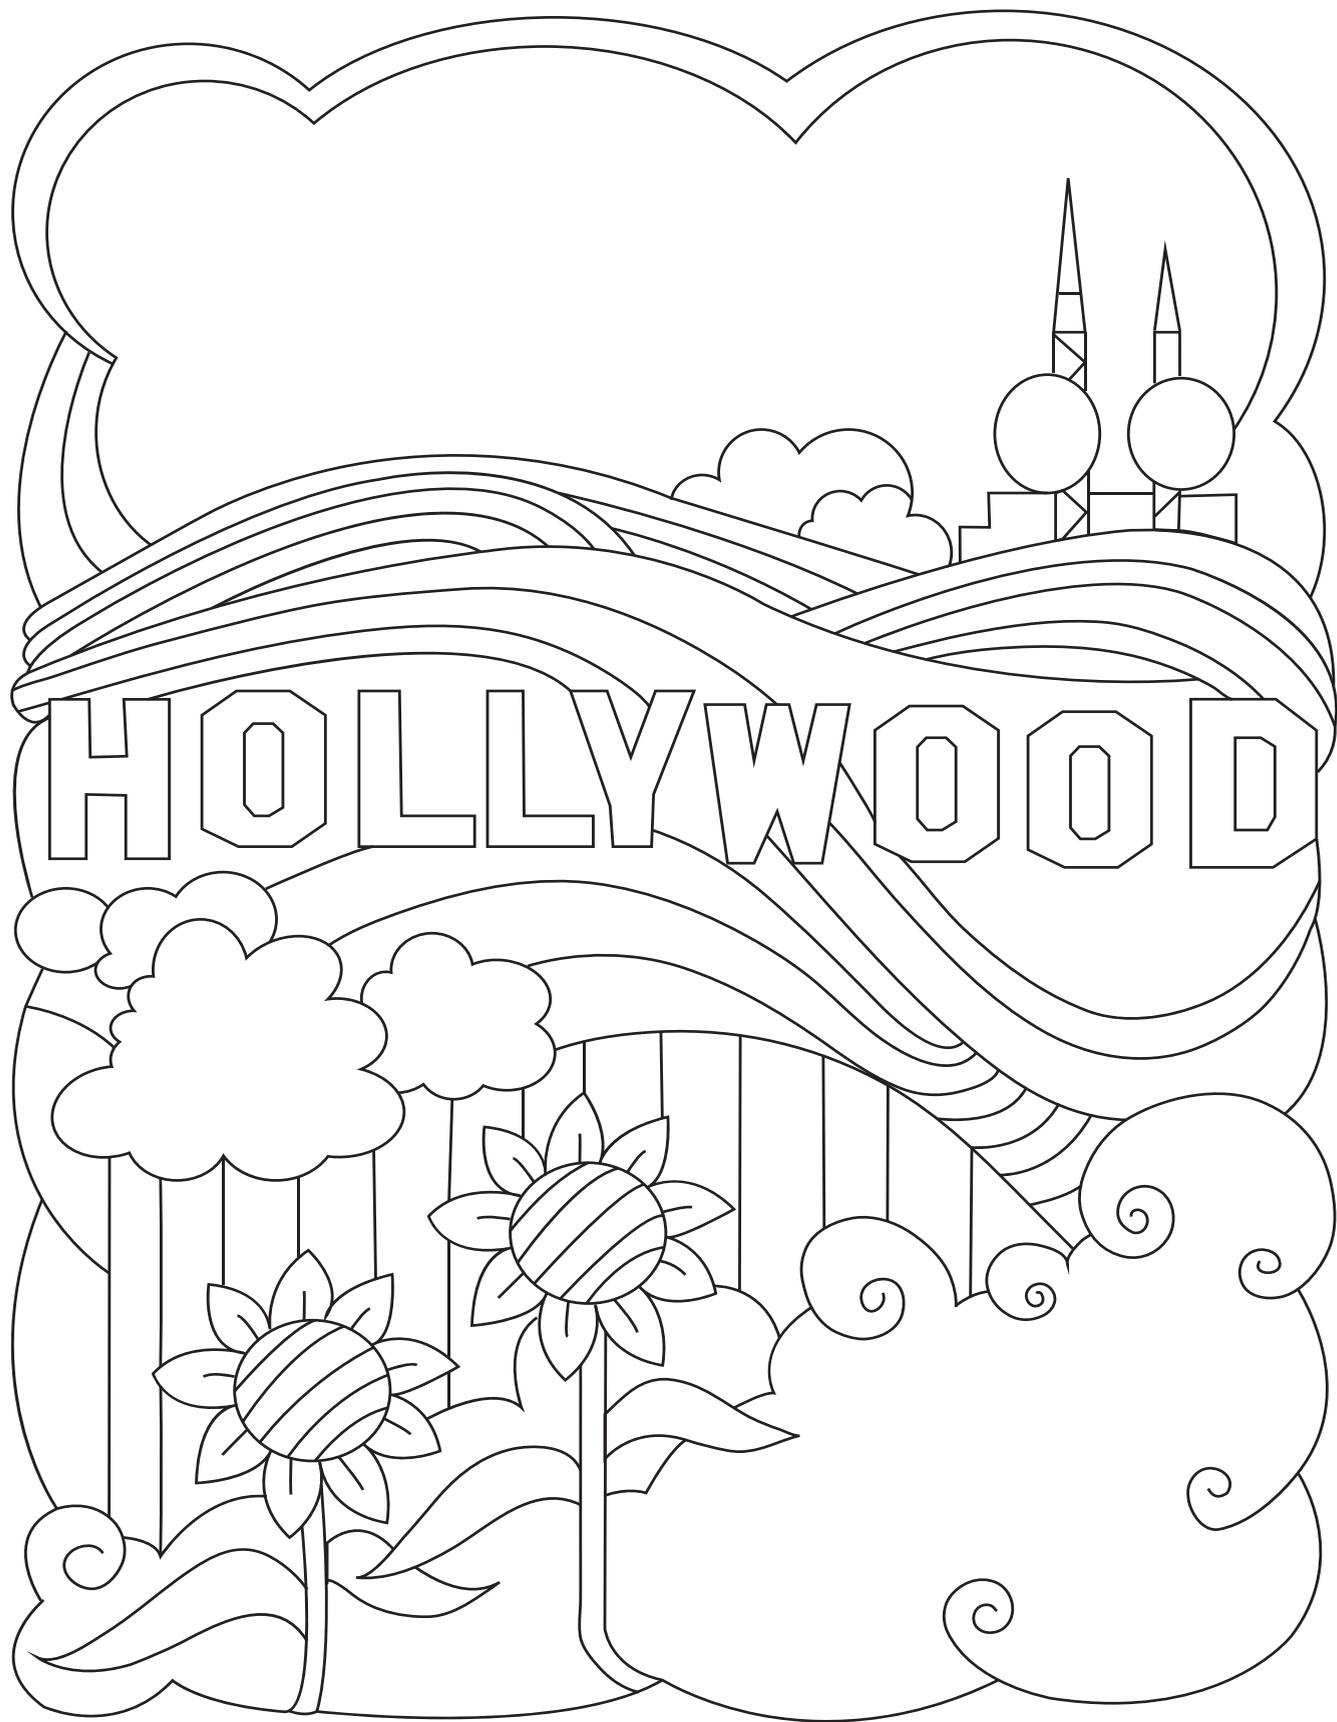

Frontier Metropolis

“To some extent, Seattle remains a frontier metropolis, a place where people can experiment with their lives, and change and grow and make things happen.”

–Tom Robbins

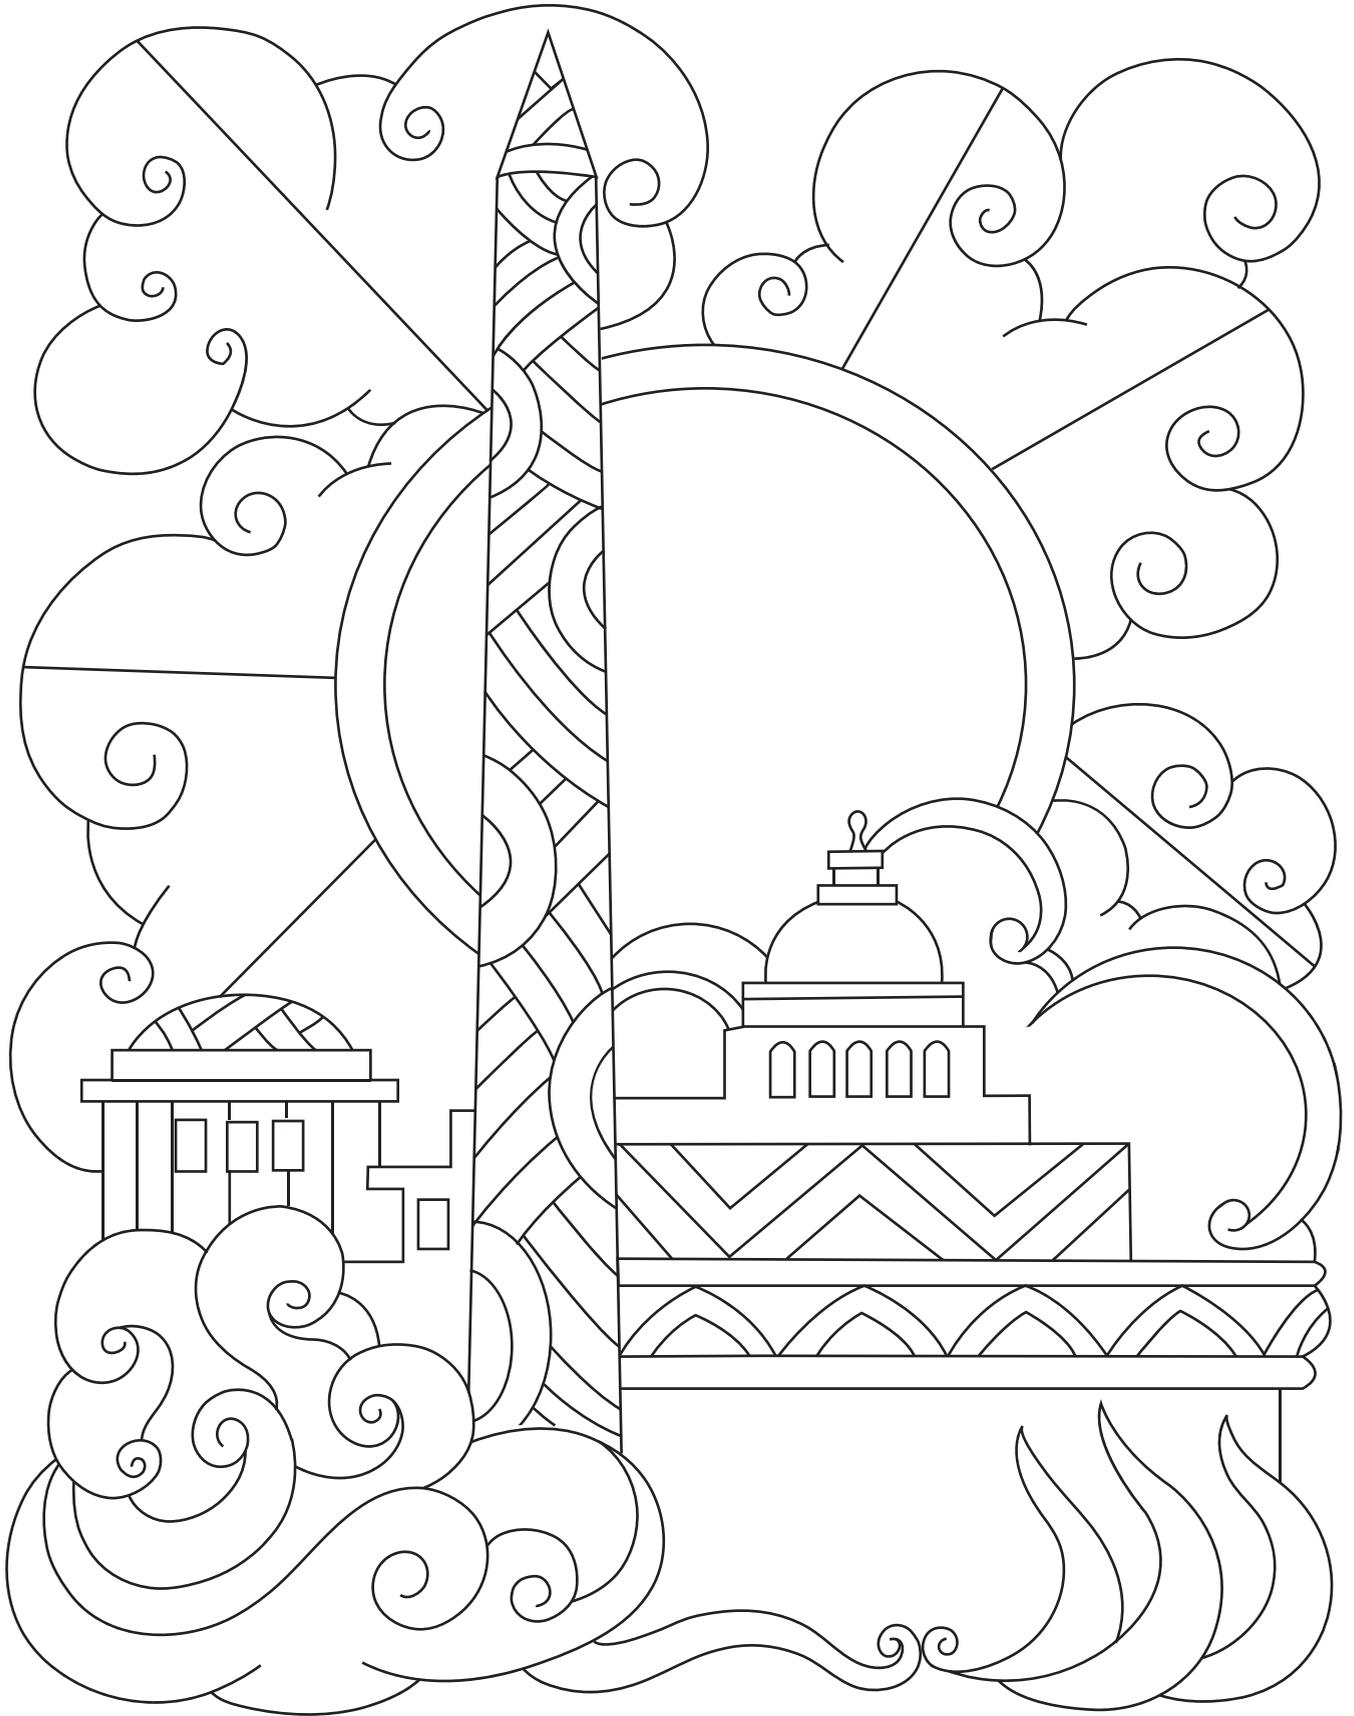

Hollywood Glamour

*"In Los Angeles,
everyone is a star."*

-Denzel Washington

Monument to History

“Washington has obelisks and pyramids and underground tunnels and great art and a whole shadow world that we really don’t see.”

–Dan Brown

Spirit of Democracy

“...we believe a nation’s memorial should, like Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Roosevelt, have a serenity, a nobility, a power that reflects the gods who inspired them and suggests the gods they have become.”

–Gutzon Borglum, Mt. Rushmore designer

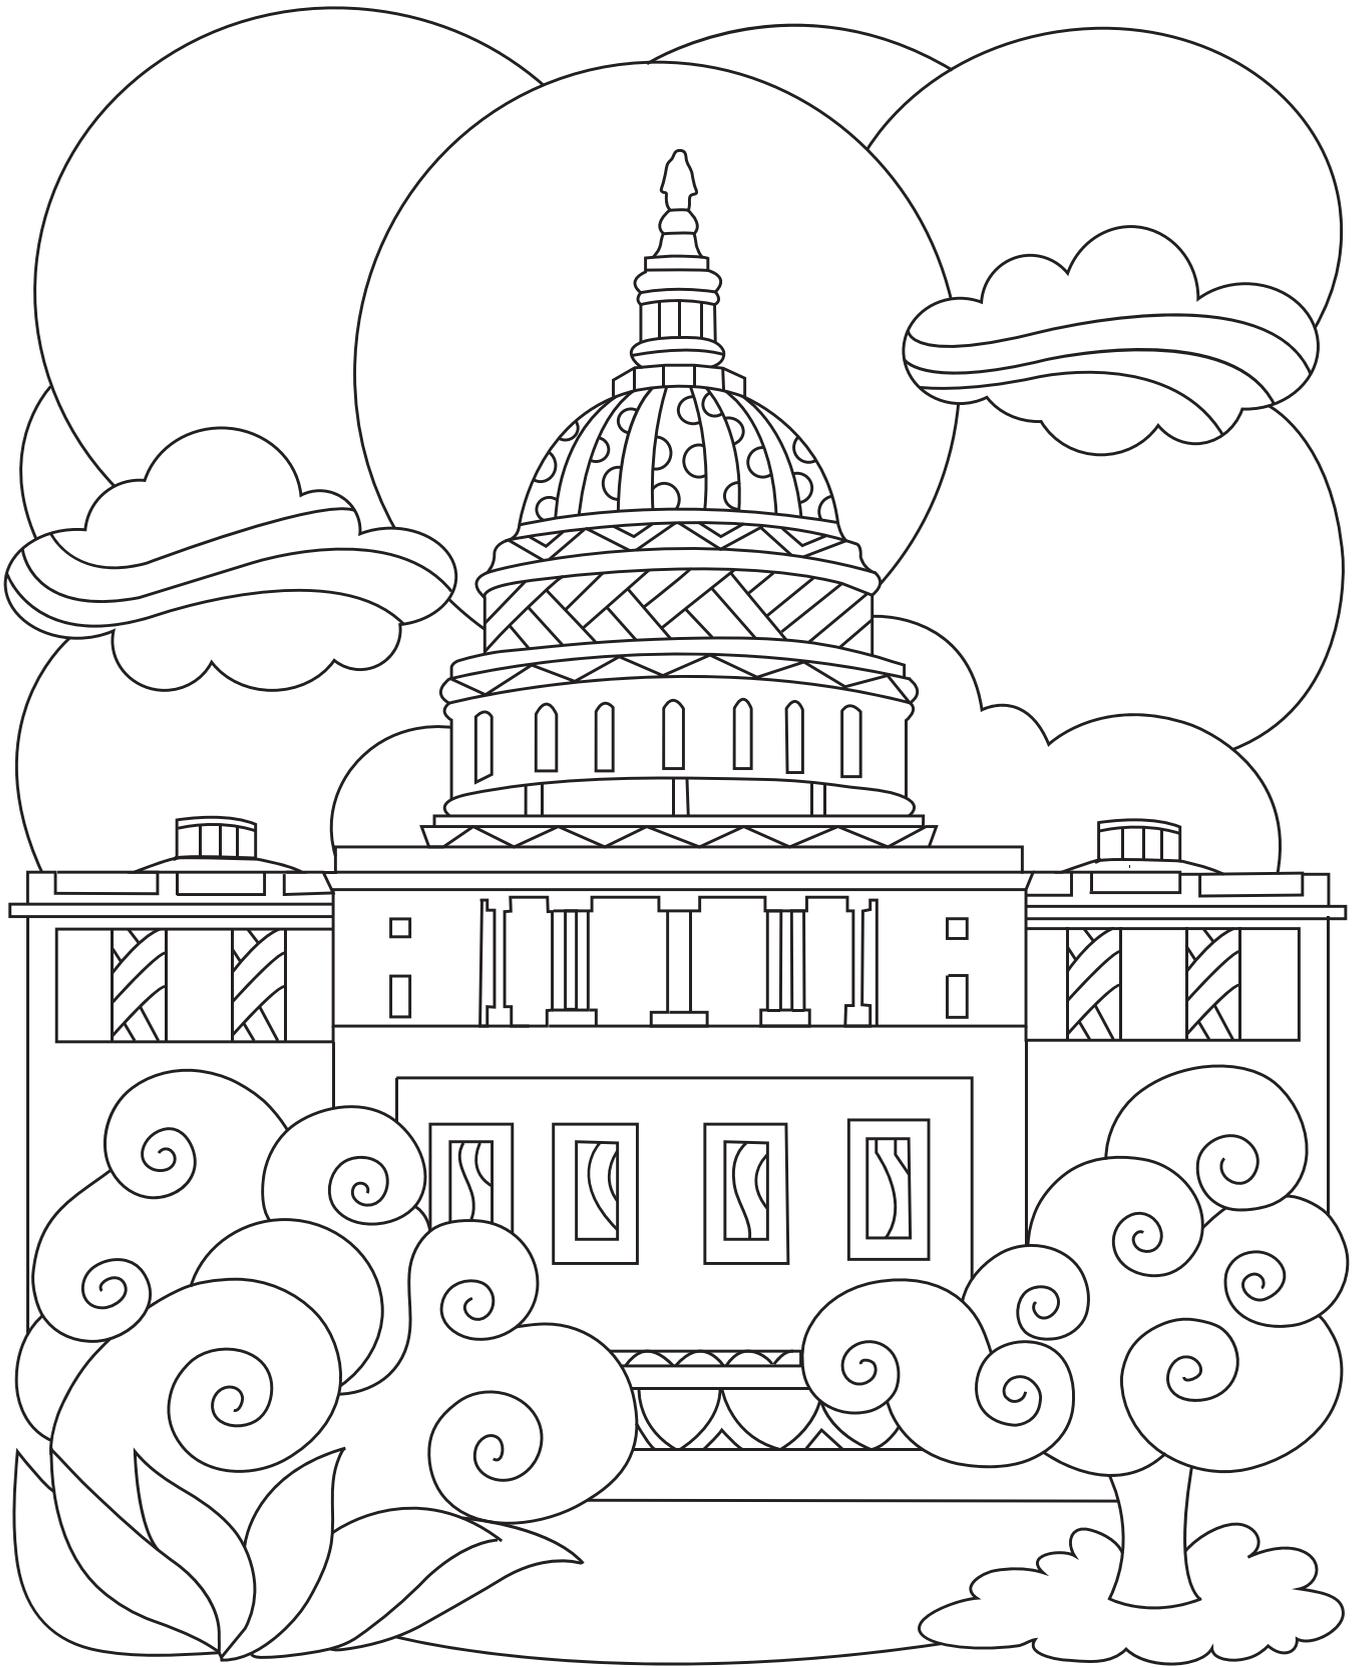

Wonder of the Modern World

“If you’re alive, you can’t be bored in San Francisco. If you’re not alive, San Francisco will bring you to life.”

–William Saroyan

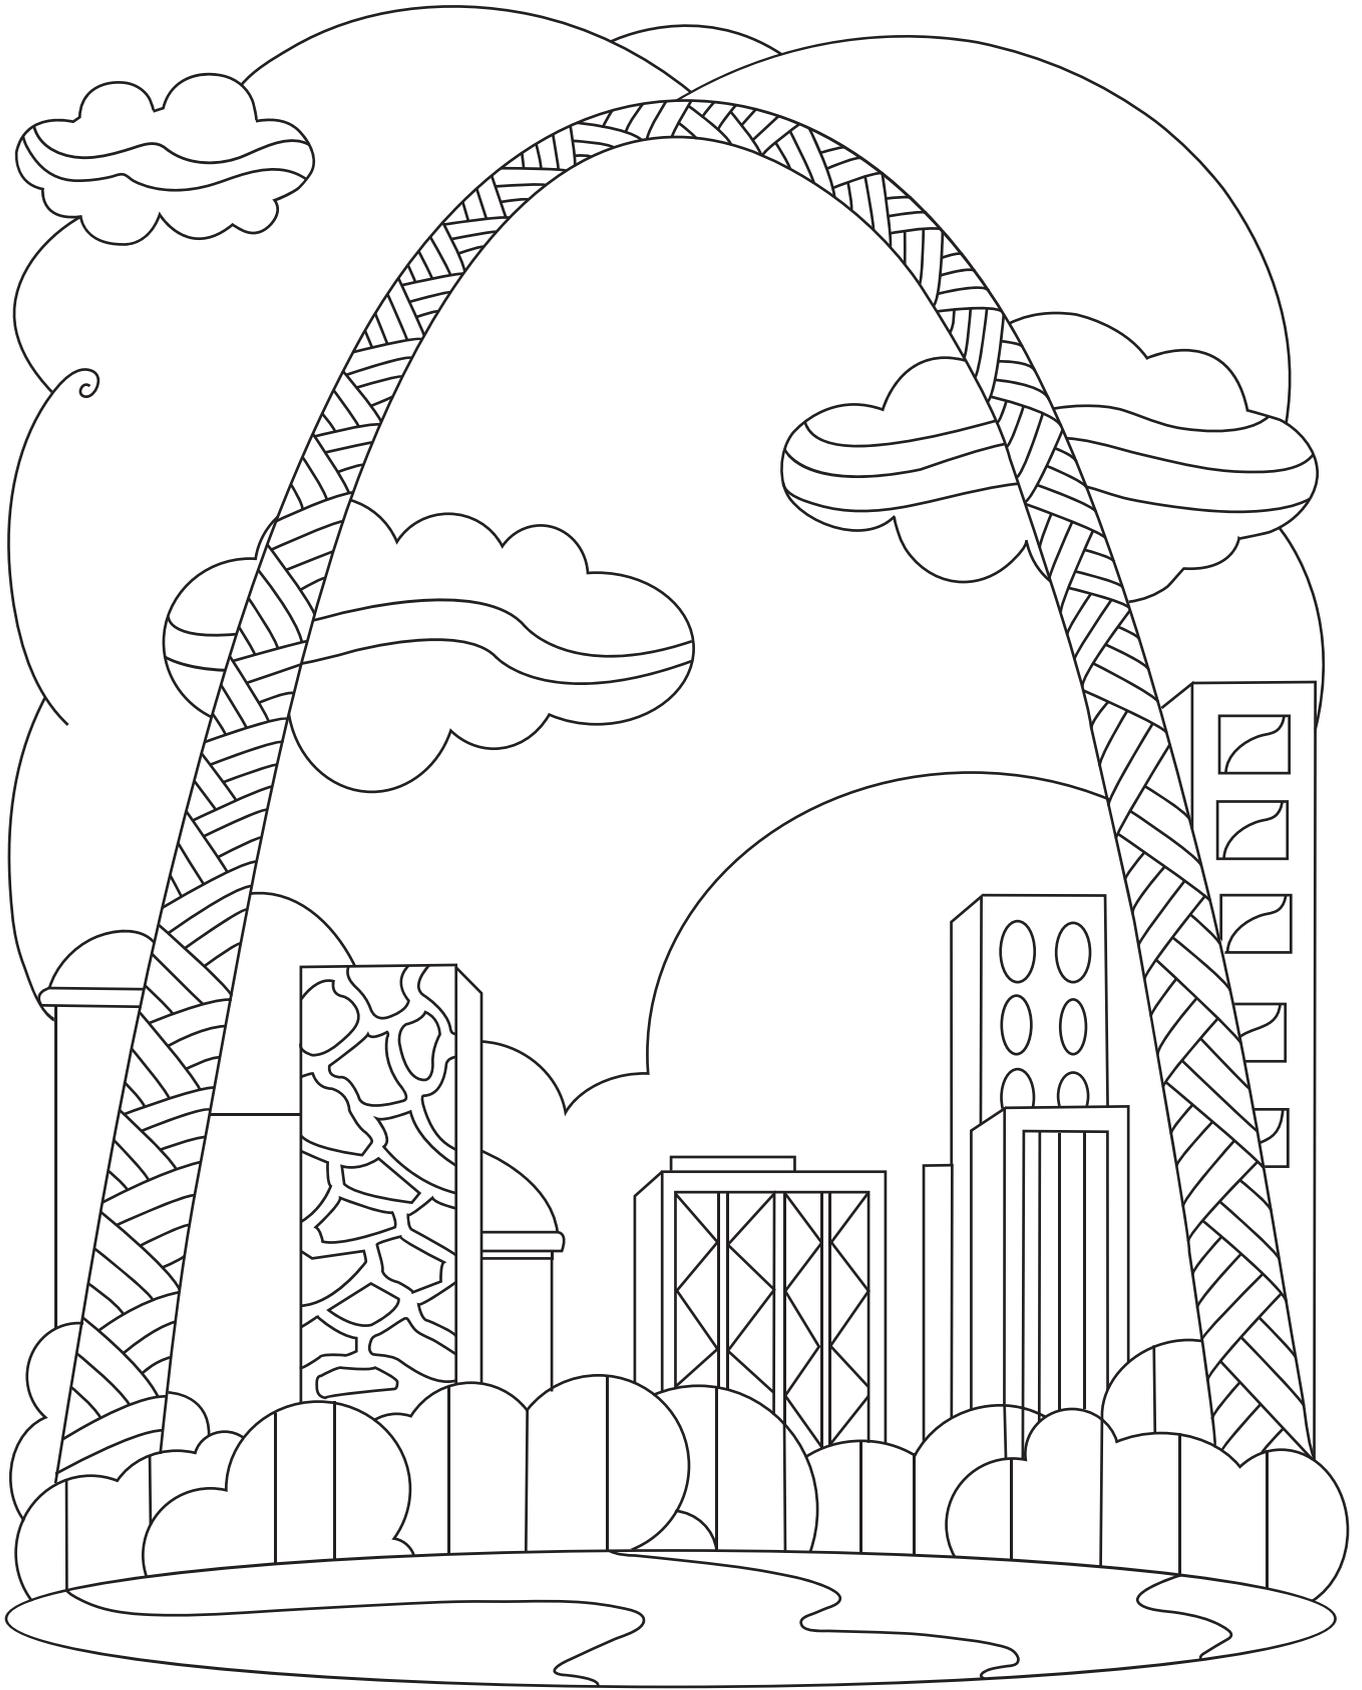

Symbol of America

“In Washington, DC, politics dominate even the most casual conversations.”

–Armstrong Williams

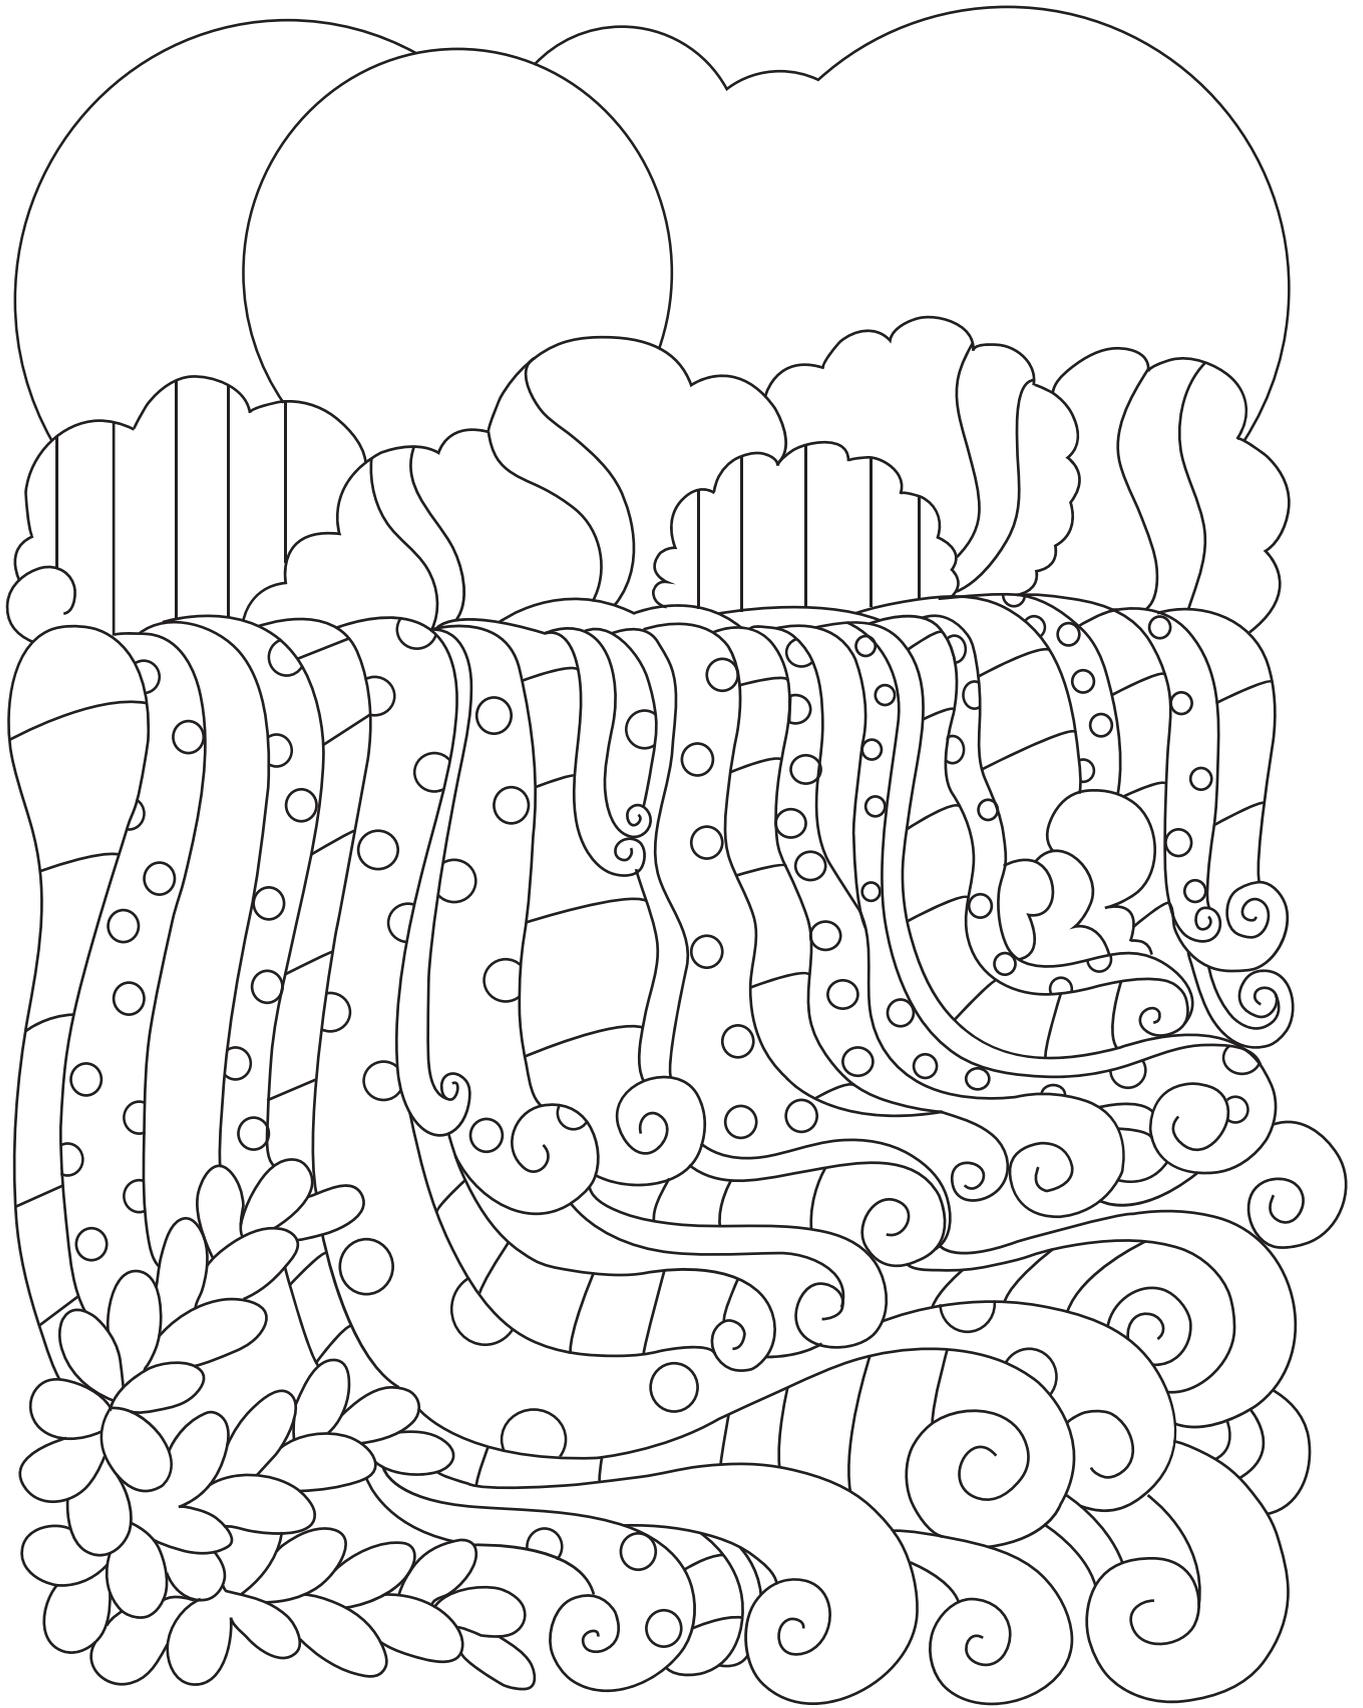

Iconic Arch

“Its real symbolism is not to the westward expansion of the nineteenth century, but to the power and dominance of the United States in the twentieth century.”

–Tracy Campbell

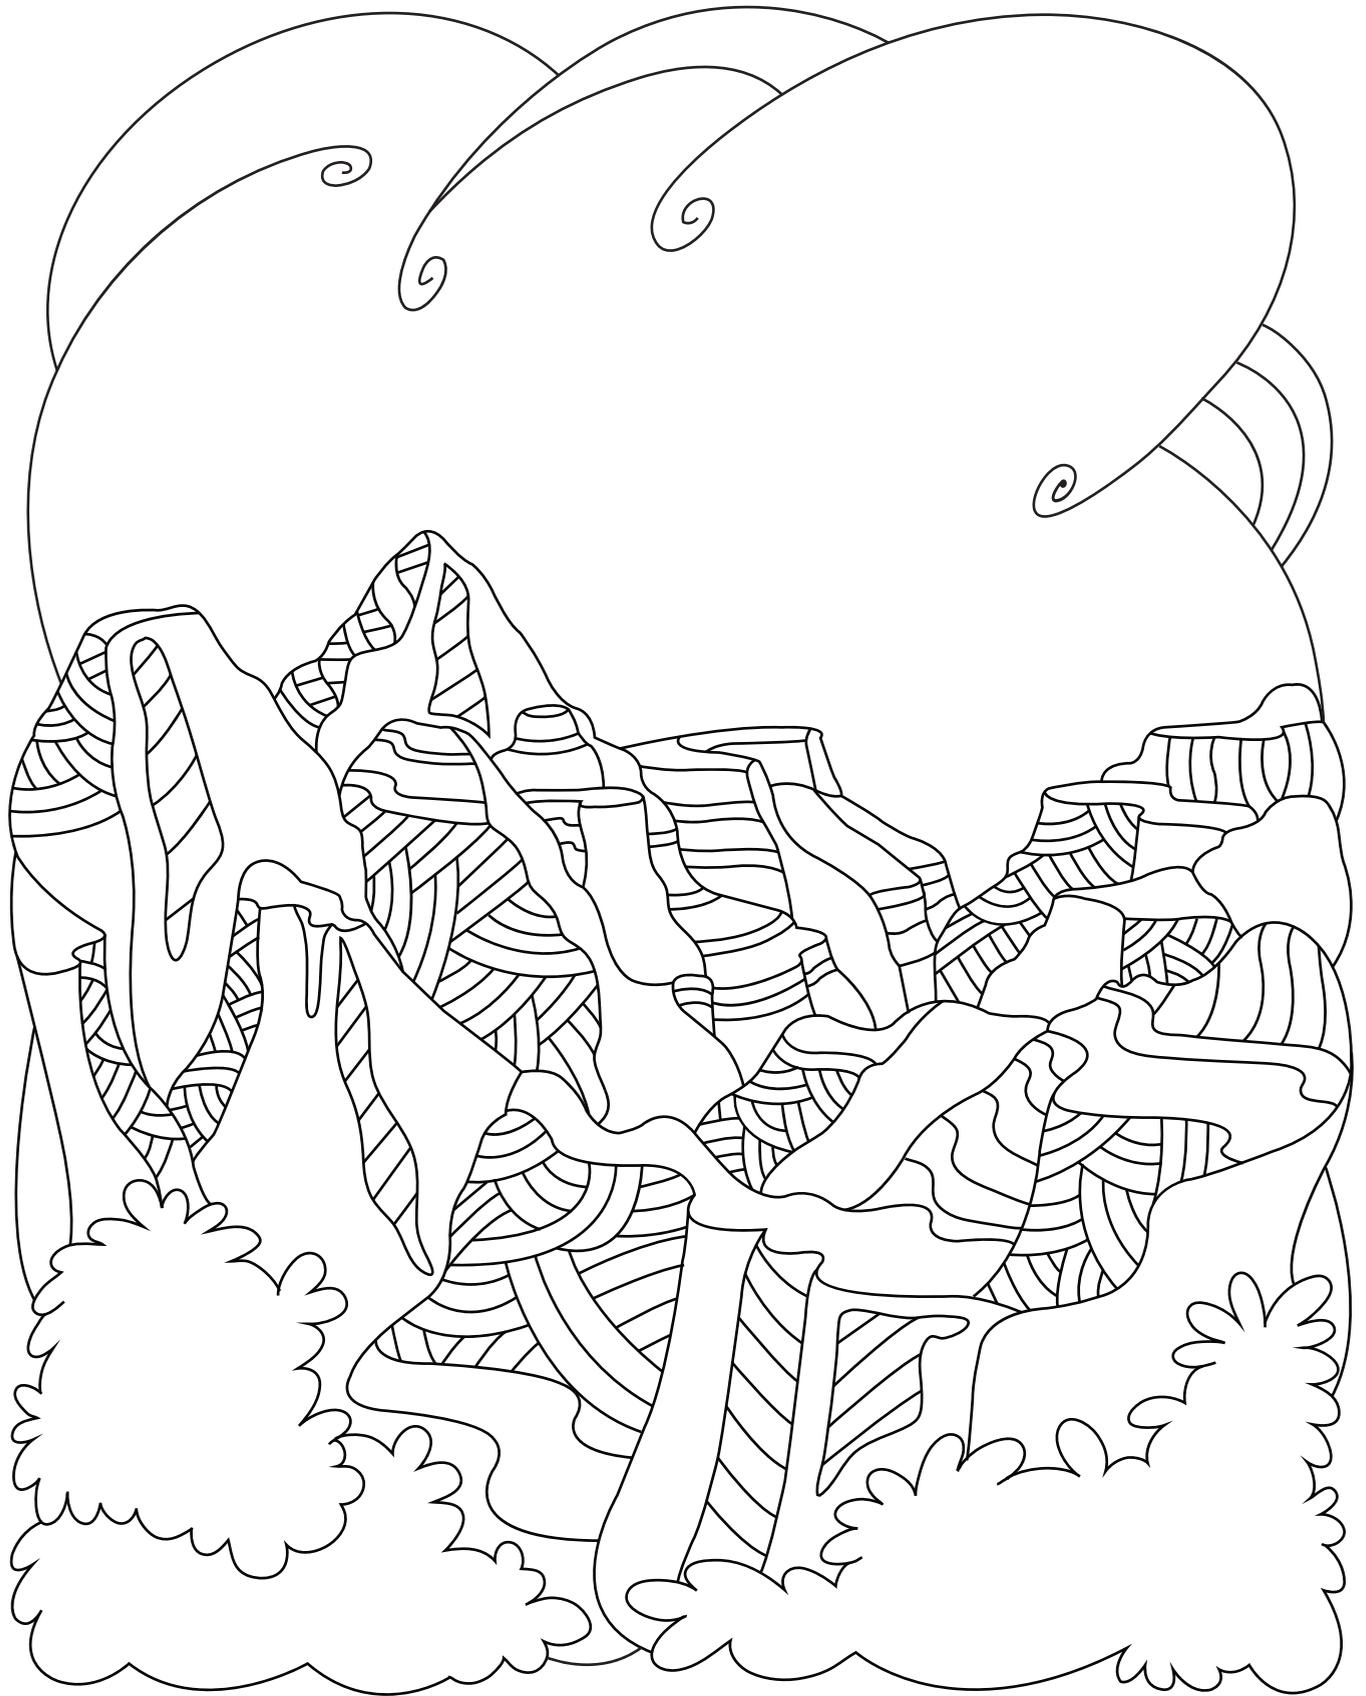

Majestic Falls

“Niagara Falls is the hanging tongue on the face of the earth, drooling endlessly over its own beauty.”

–Vinita Kinra

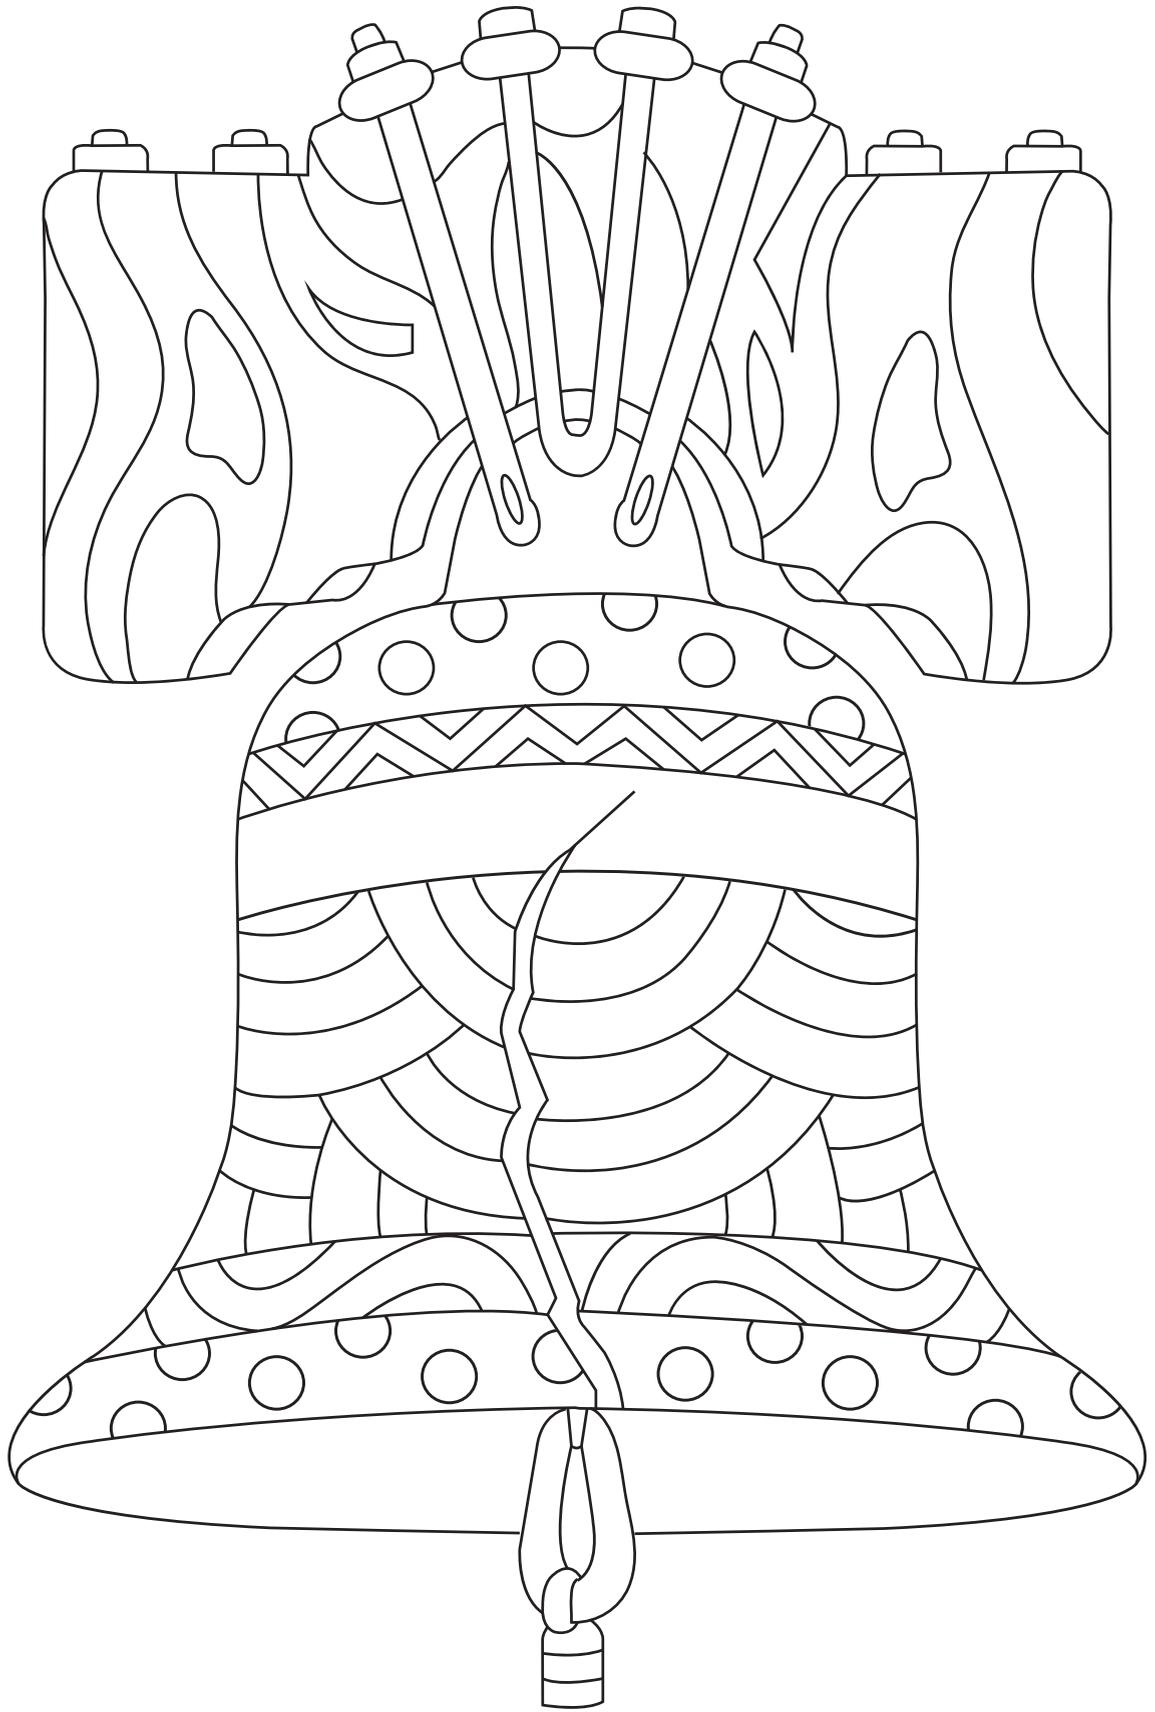

Colorful Landscape

“The wonders of the Grand Canyon cannot be adequately represented in symbols of speech nor by speech itself. The resources of the graphic art are taxed beyond their powers in attempting to portray its features. Language and illustration combined must fail.”

– John Wesley Powell

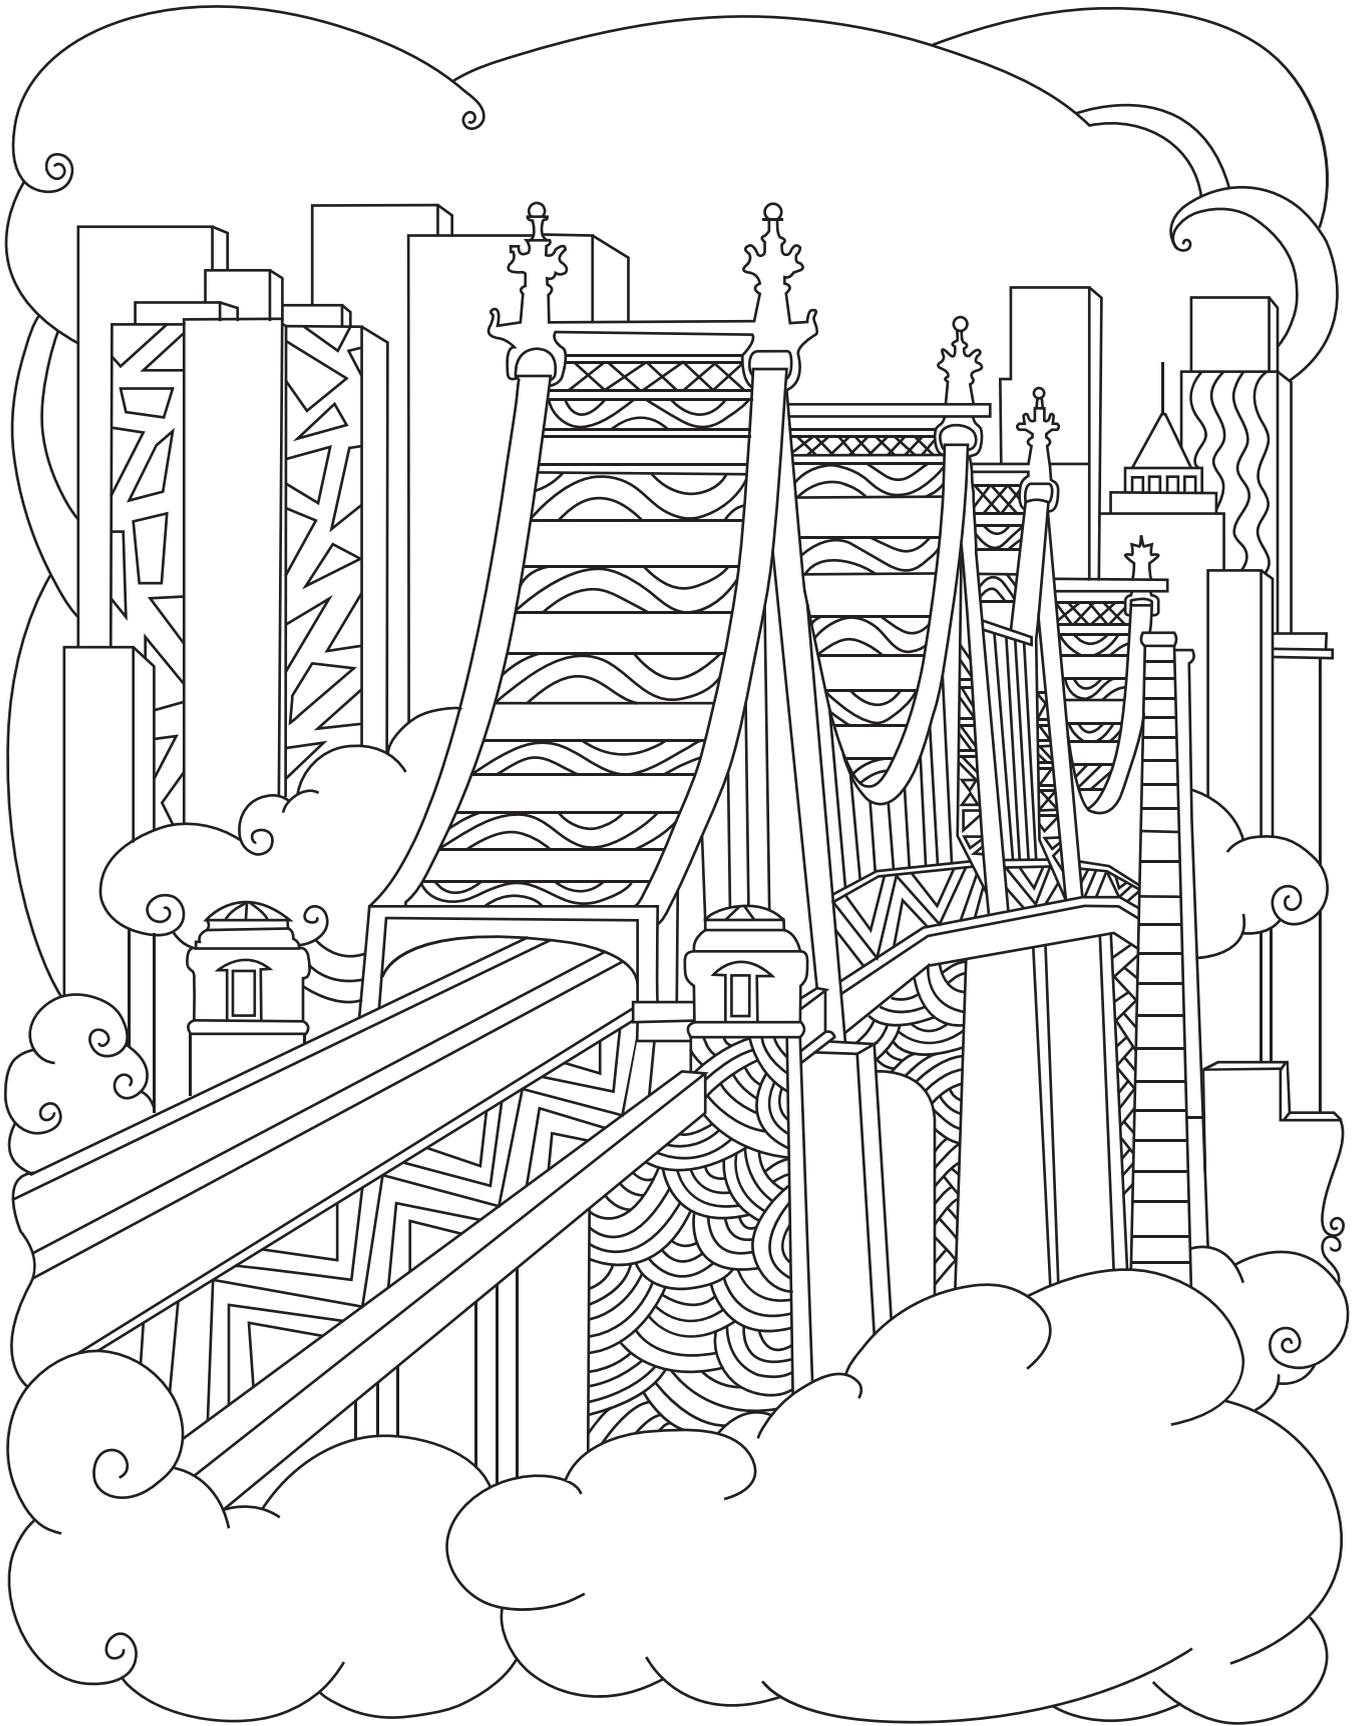

Sound of Liberty

*“Yes, there’s a lady that stands in a harbor for what we believe.
And there’s a bell that still echoes the price that it cost to be free.”*

–Aaron Tippin

Skyline View

In Los Angeles,
everyone is a star.
—Denzel Washington
